1969 Yearbook Dedication

Mrs. Fern Tilson

The Senior Class of 1969 dedicate this Eagle annual to Mrs. Fern Tilson. Fern's eight years of time and patience are greatly appreciated by the students of Norwich High School. Her duties as secretary are book-keeping, filing, telephone service, issuing lunch tickets, tardy slips, absent slips and just understanding the students has made her outstanding in her field of work. These few words are little to express our gratitude.

What is a school Annual?

School annuals are pictures and printing recording the immediate past of school events and persons connected with the school.

As years pass the annual leaves the status of the immediate past and becomes just simply the past. In future years the close associations between students begins to widen and as years go by they get farther apart. It is then that the annual begins to increase in value, for it recalls the fond memories of the close associations and even names of students and teachers you may have forgotten.

I congratulate the Seniors of 1969 for this fine book and my desire is that I hope in the future years this annual's value will become priceless to you.

Best wishes,

J. C. Potter

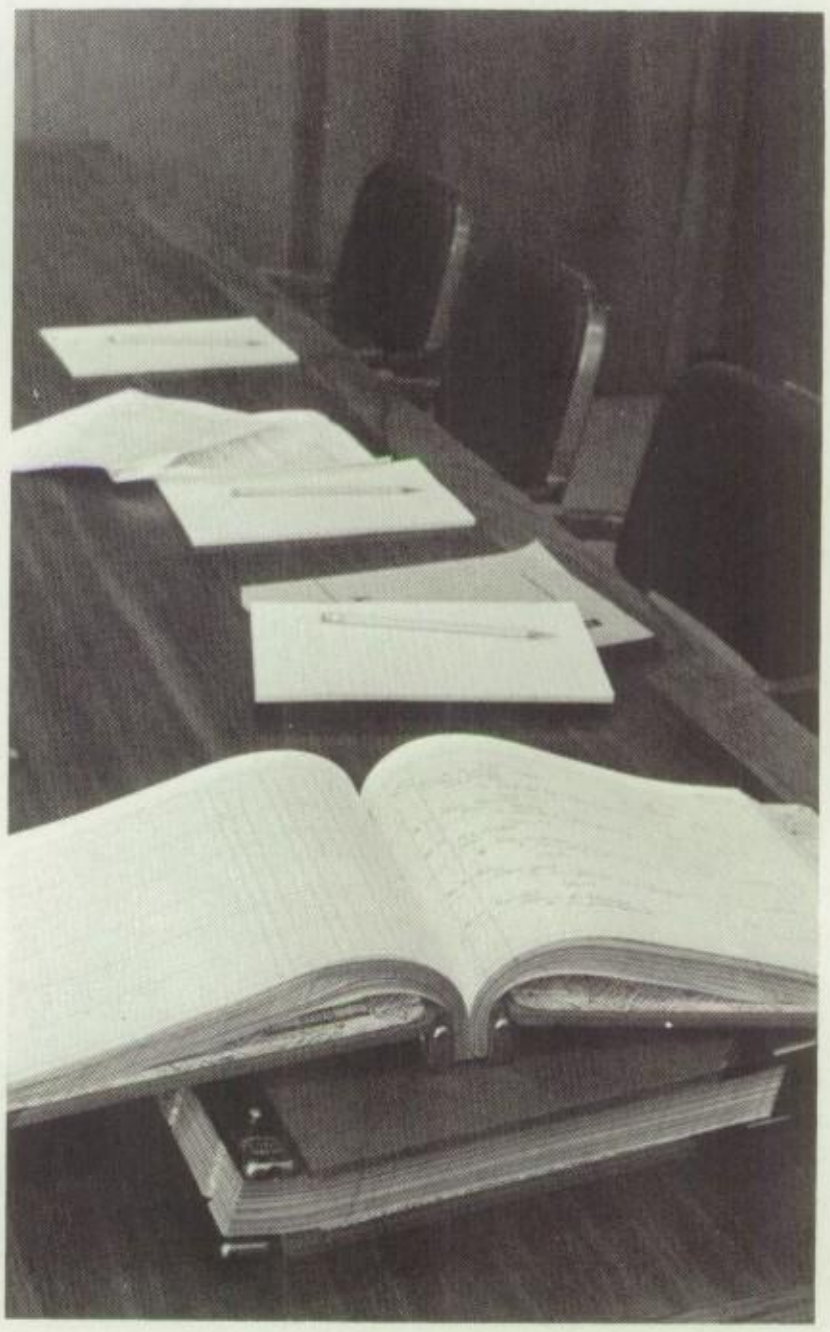
ADMINISTRATION

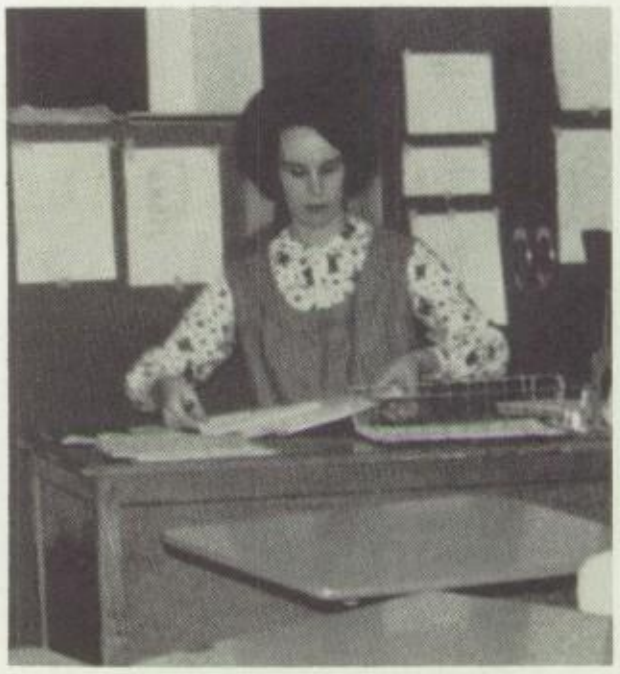


English Department

RITA DOAN

Mrs. Doan graduated from Pratt High School in 1963. She went on to attend Panhandle State College and Pratt Junior College. She has done graduate work and taken Library Science at Northwestern.

Mrs. Doan has taught at Norwich for 2 1/2 years. This year she had Y-Teens, the Library, and all of the High School English classes for the first semester. She has also had charge of the Jr. and Sr. plays, and Forensics coaching.



Mrs. Doan--You think kids drive me crazy now!

CHERYL PREBBLE

Mrs. Prebble, who took over the English teaching job on Feb. 3, originally came from Kingman. She has lived in California with her husband when the Air Force stationed him there.

Mrs. Prebble received her training from Emporia State Teachers College. She has taught speech at Phillipsburg, Kansas, and has also taught at Clark School of Business in Topeka. More recently she has been working as a social worker.

Mrs. Prebble has taught the same classes as Mrs. Doan.

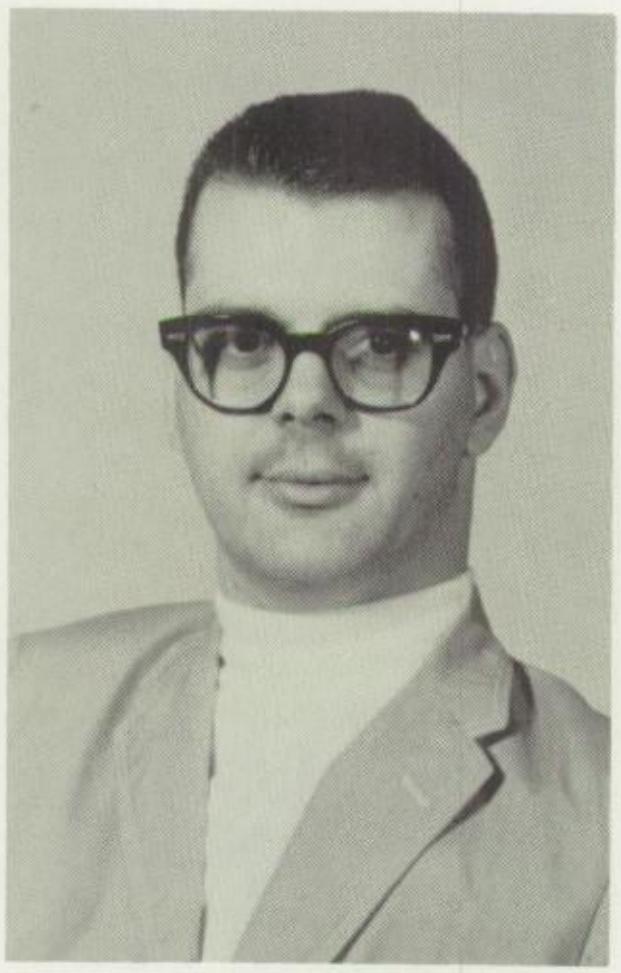
Mrs. Prebble--I like to do Shirley Temple impersonations.

Math Department

BOB SKILLEN

Mr. Skillen graduated from Norwich High School in 1945. He earned his degree from Friends University, but also attended Wichita State University. In his years of teaching Mr. Skillen has taught at Zenda, Byers, Colony, Peidmont, and Cheney. In 1964 Mr. Skillen returned to Norwich to become a member of the Norwich School faculty. This year his responsibilities include geometry, algebra I, drivers education, head coach of football, basketball, and track and sponsor of the Senior Class and Annual Staff.

Mr. Skillen--They think I'm studying but I'm really not. Sneaky, aren't I?



TERRY TROTTER

Mr. Trotter completed his high school education at Sawyer, Ks. He has attended four colleges, they are Fort Hays, Pratt Juco, South Western (where he earned his degree), and Wichita State University. Mr. Trotter taught one year at South Haven before coming to Norwich last year. However this is his first year of teaching at Norwich. Mr. Trotter teaches general math, algebra II, and senior math.

Mr. Trotter--They call me Trig Trotter.

Social Studies Department

JIM GOSCH

Mr. Gosch teaches American History, American Government, and Citizenship at Norwich. He is a graduate of Norwich High School and has attended Kansas State University for his BA degree and Kansas State Teachers College for masters work.

Other towns in which he has taught are Seneca, Ks., Wellington, Ks., and Marion, Ks. He has also taught the subjects of World History, and Spanish I, II, and III.

Mr. Gosch is the Sophomore class sponsor, asst. football coach, and asst. basketball coach.

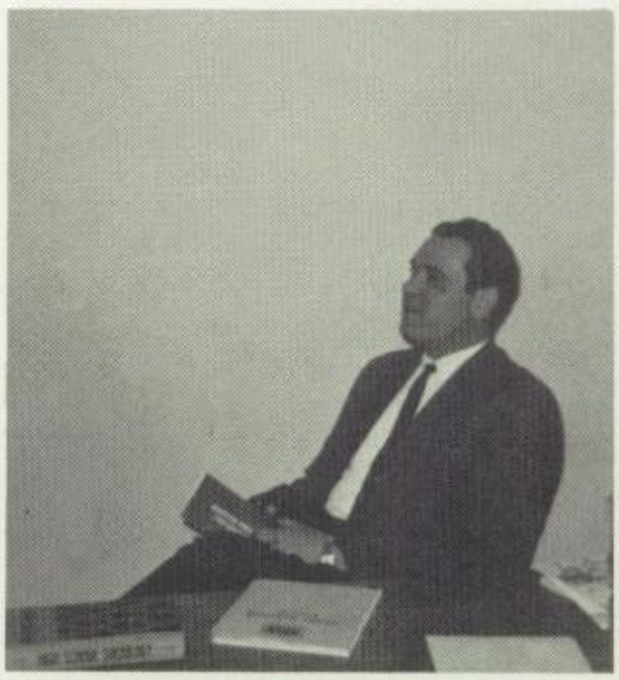
Mr. Gosch--Dear Congressman: On this subject of liquor by the drink...

Social Science Department

CARROLL JOHNSON

Mr. Johnson graduated from Ponca City High School in 1949 and recieved his BSEd degree from East Central State College. He teaches Psychology, Family Living and Sociology and serves as Guidance Councilor and Student Council Sponsor.

Mr. Johnson has taught at Almogordo, N. M., Okmulgee, Okla., Bowledge, Okla., and Stratford, Okla. besides being at Norwich. While at Okmulgee he continued his college education at East Central for his MTch. Among the various subjects he has taught are 7th, 8th, and 9th grade Science, Biology, Chemistry, and Drivers Education.

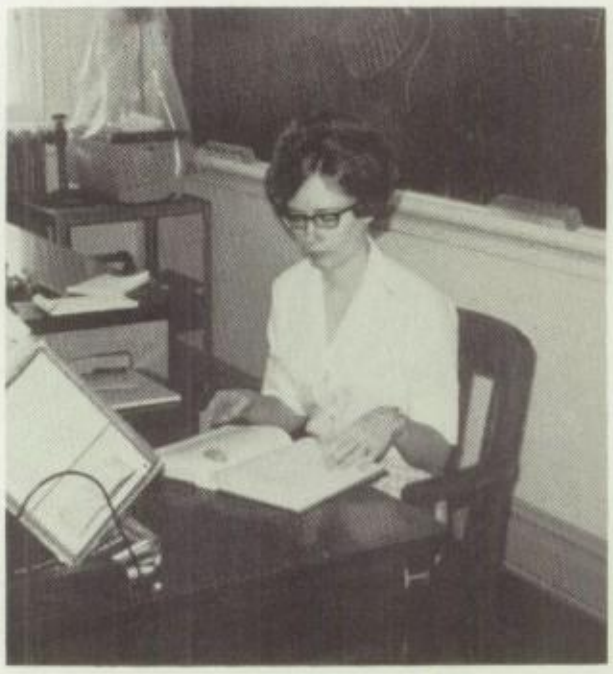


Mr. Johnson--Alvin, if you'll please get down off that file cabinet...

Science Department

LANA FRANK

The Norwich High School Chemistry, General Science, and Biology teacher is Mrs. Frank. She attended high school at Jet Moore, Kansas and college at Fort Hays State College at Hays, Kansas. At Hays Junior High, where she did her student teaching, she taught Earth Science, High School Biology and Advanced Biology. Mrs. Frank received her Bachelor of Science in Biological Science in 1964 and her Bachelor of Science in Elementary Education in 1967. She also teaches 5th, 6th, 7th, and 8th grade girls Physical Education and is Pep Club sponsor.



Mrs. Frank--See Jack. See Jane. See Jane run. Watch Jack run.

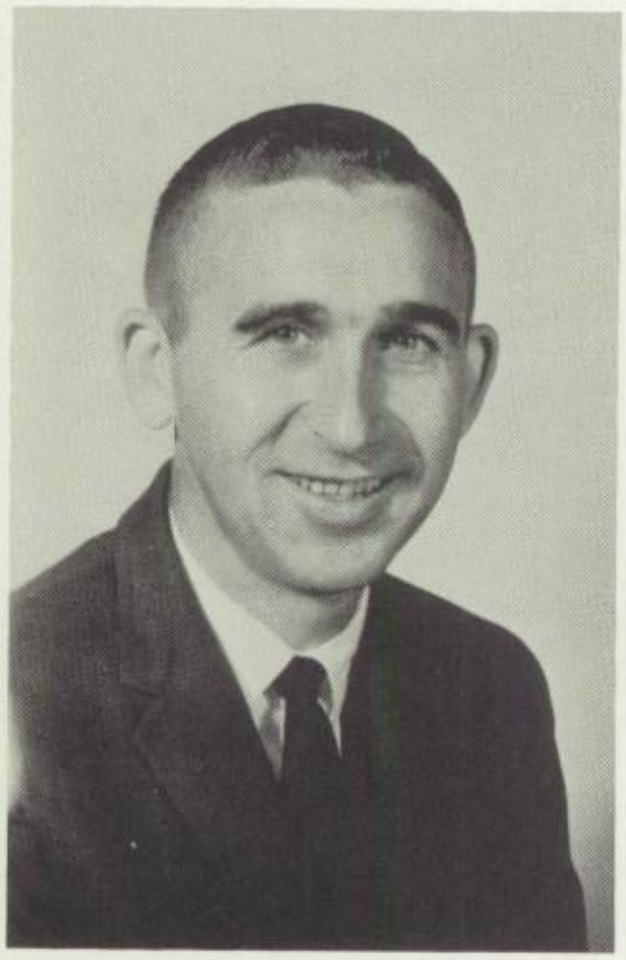
Home Economics Department

CARLA EGGERT

Miss Eggert attended High School at Norwich High. She attended college at Kansas State Teachers College, Emporia, Kansas where she majored in Vocational Home Economics and received her Bachelor of Science in Education in 1965. After attending college Miss Eggert did her student teaching at North High in Wichita where she taught Clothing 2 and 3, Foods 2, and Family Living. She now teaches Home Economics 1, 2, and 3, in High School and 7th and 8th grade Home Economics, Physical Education for High School and girls basketball along with being Pep Club sponsor.

Miss Eggert--Don't tell anyone, but I'm an imposter. I majored in sex education.

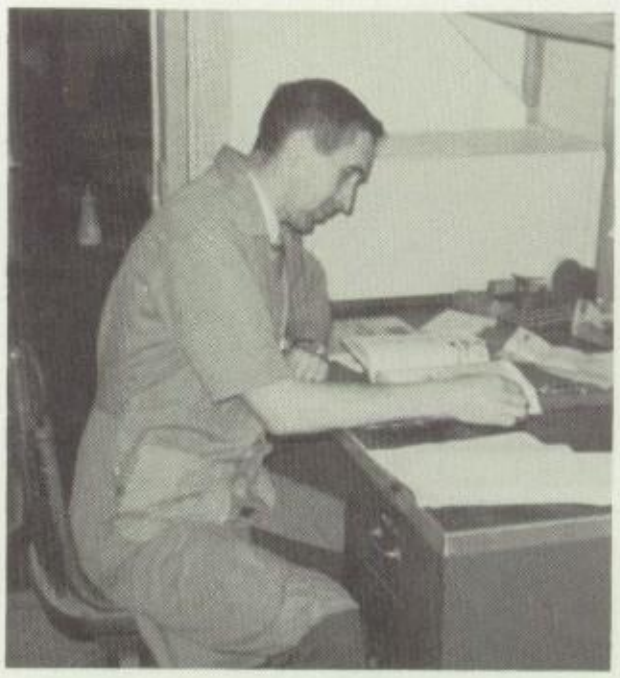
Shop Department



NORVAL HARRIS

Graduating from Haven Rural High School in 1953, Mr. Harris attended Hutchinson Junior College, Emporia State College, Wichita State University, and Pittsburg State University.

Mr. Harris taught at South Haven and Halstead before coming to Norwich, teaching Shop, Social Science, and Drivers Education. At Norwich he is shop teacher, tennis coach, and Junior Class sponsor.



Mr. Harris--I'll find a question that Gary can't answer.

Music Department

RICHARD HEFFNER

Our music teacher, both vocal and instrumental, graduated from Winfield High School. Mr. Heffner attended college at Wichita State, Wichita, Kansas where he received his Bachelor Degree in Music Education. He did his student teaching at Derby Public Schools where he taught instrumental music. He was in the Army for two years. Along with his teaching here he also is the Freshman Class sponsor.

Mr. Heffner--I'm the boss and if you forget it, you can stand in the corner at attention for 10 minutes.

Commerce Department

MILDRED KENNEDY

Mrs. Kennedy graduated from high school in Yates Center, Kansas. Her college work has been done at Friends University, Denver University, and Northwestern State College where she received her B. S. Degree. She is working on her Masters at Wichita State University. This is her third year at Norwich and she teaches commerce. She also sponsors the Senior Class and the annual staff.

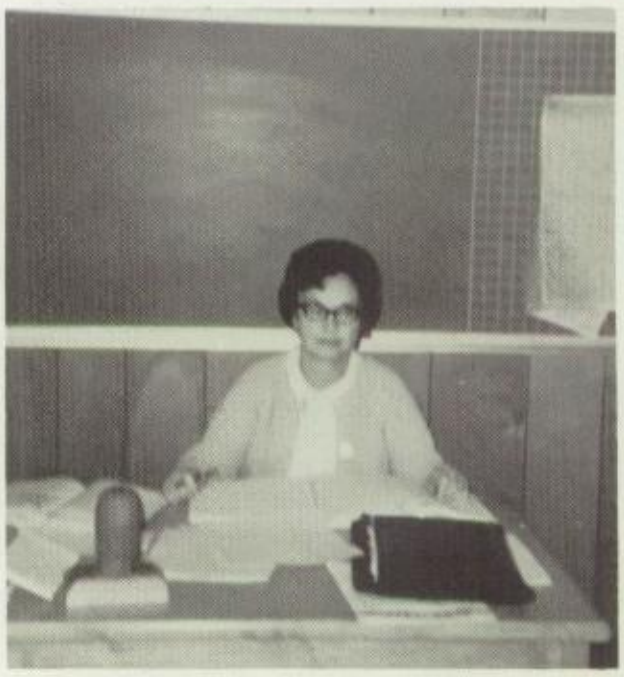
For your next assignment I'll LET you do Problems 2-6.

Language Department

LOLA KLEPPER

Mrs. Klepper graduated from Pretty Prairie High School. After graduation she taught school at Manmouth College, Illinois, as a food director.

She attended Sterling College for 4 years, and Kansas State for 1 1/2 years. She went to summer school W. S. U. for 2 years, and Emporia State for 1 year. She majored in Home Ec. and has received a Bachelor Degree. She taught 2 years at Adams, 6 years at Partridge, 10 years at Monmouth, 3 years at Florence, and 1 year at Cedar Creek, Tennessee. She is now working at Norwich as a Spanish Teacher and has taught here for 3 years.



Remember how pleasant life used to be, Mrs. Klepper?

Principal

T. C. TROTTER

Due to his 9 years of coaching and 19 years of administration work, Mr. Trotter has many experiences which he can take advantage of. He has been Principal at Norwich for 2 years, gaining him another store of experiences to tell.

Mr. Trotter gained his schooling from 3 schools, beginning at Geneseo High School. He received his PH. B. from Sterling College and his M. S. from Pittsburg State Teachers College.

I'm the life of every party.

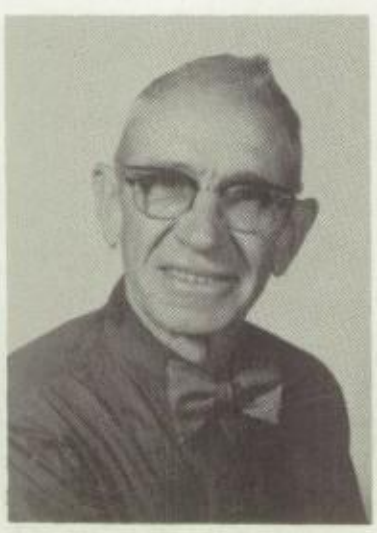
Secretary

Fern Tilson

Mrs. Fern Tilson graduated at Norwich High School in 1942. She attended Friends University and Blackwood Davis Business College. She majored in Business and Physical Education. Before Fern started to work here she worked for the Civil Service in Big Springs, Texas. She worked 10 years at the Civil Service and 8 years at Norwich High as a secretary.

Dear Diary . . . . .

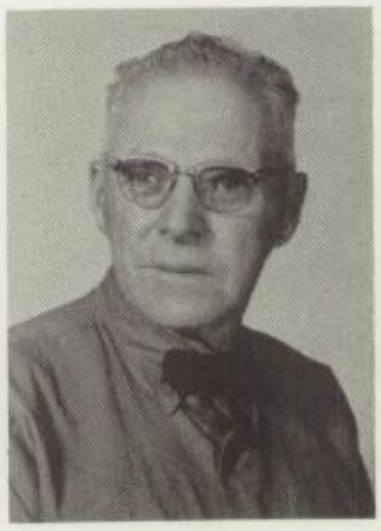
Custodians



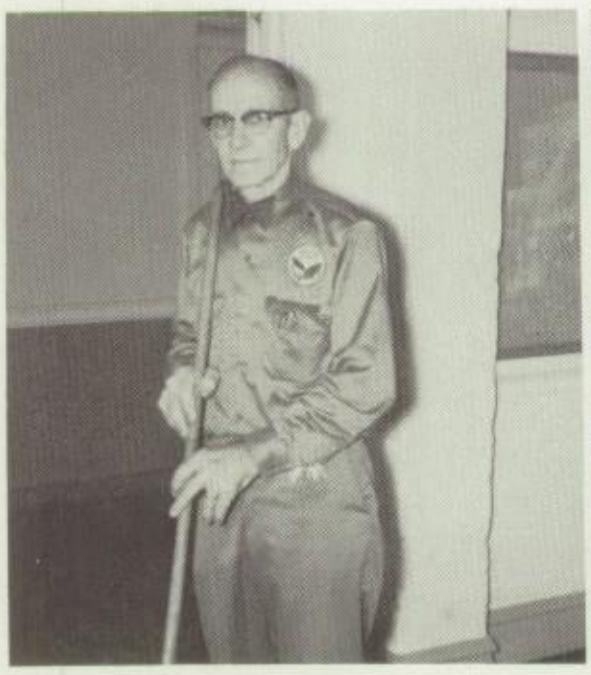
Ed Fieser

Mr. Ed Fieser graduated from Norwich High School in 1926. After graduation he worked at a filling station, drove a truck, and worked on a farm. He has worked 10 years at the High School as a custodian and bus driver.

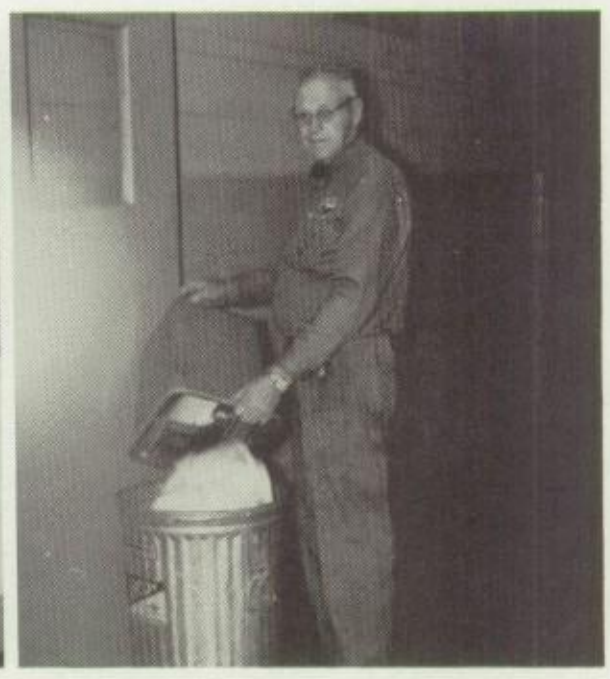
Mr. Lester Berry graduated from Norwich High School in 1922. He worked on a farm after graduation and came to work as a custodian in 1956.



Lester Berry



I'm Ed Fieser, alias Mr. Clean.



Today I clean the school tomorrow the world.

School Cooks

Mrs. Krehbiel

Betty Crocker asked me to be part of her staff. . . Mrs. Krehbiel is the head cook of the cooks. Her main department is baking. She has worked at Norwich for a year. Last year she worked at Kingman for a year and before that six years at Adams. In her spare time she is a housewife.

And now we baste our rolls with our home made glue. . . . Mrs. Rowan has worked at Norwich 3 years. She serves and cleans up the lunch room. On off hours she is a housewife.

Mrs. Rowan

Mrs. Fisher

Don't tell anybody but I just mixed the apricots with the navy beans. . . . Mrs. Fisher began to work at the Norwich cafeteria 4 years ago as a helper to serve the food.

Ivory and I can see myself. . . . Mrs. Brewer has worked at Norwich for 12 years. She helps cook and clean up. After working hours she is a housewife.

Mrs. Brewer

Mrs. Garver

Lets see, now Kent Z. owes for 94 meals. . . . Mrs. Garver has worked 3 years as a lunch ticket puncher and helper.

Bus Drivers

Carl Brewer

"I don't care what you say, I didn't do it!"... Carl Brewer drives the southeast bus route which takes him about 40 miles a trip. He started his bus driving career when he was a junior in high school in the Milton school system and has driven off and on ever since. Besides the regular route, Carl is on call any day to drive to any of the sports activities. When Carl isn't driving a bus, he occupies his time with his farming.

Max Wineinger

"Darn those birds!"... Max Wineinger is a veteran of 13 years who drives the northwest route which takes him around 30 miles each morning. Max finds that the time away from his bus is filled with the chores of keeping his farm running. He is also one of our regular drivers to our sports activities.

Ernie Thomas

"They thought my hamburgers were greasy"... Ernie Thomas is the Norwich bus driver who has the most constant job. He starts the mornings off by driving a 34 mile trip on the northwest route, at noon he makes a 46 mile trip to return the kindergarteners to their homes, and ends the day with another 34 mile trip to the northwest. Ernie also has a 46 mile bus route to run during summer school term. Ernie also drives to most of the sports events and has driven off and on for the last 14 years.

Cliff Poe

"Here I come, Mr. Bus Driver 1969."... Cliff Poe has been in the bus driving business longer than any of our other bus drivers. His record stands as 21 years of bus driving without missing a single year. Cliff has driven the south route which includes 30 miles each morning and evening. He also racks up 30 miles each noon when he returns the kindergarteners to their homes. Cliff is an alternate for our sports buses, going only when someone else can't. During his free time, Cliff runs a blacksmith and welding shop.

Bernie Rowan

"All the luxuries of home."... Bernie Rowan started driving buses for the Milton school district and has collected a total of 18 years for these two schools. This year Bernie drives the east route which takes him about 30 miles in one trip. Bernie is also a farmer when he isn't driving a bus and is a driver for the night sports activities.

Football

Seven wins and one loss isn't a bad record for a season of football. That is the record the Eagle football squad left for the '68' season fans. In accomplishing this feat the Eagles mounted up 289 points to their opponents 187. This was done almost completely through a smooth, powerful offense, sharp defense, and a high team spirit.

In the third game of the season, Carl Farrar was put out for the season with torn ligaments. Later on, in the fifth game, Mike Thornbro was crippled with a broken leg. Because of these injuries there were several starters and they are as follows: Harold Fieser and Kevin Coykendall--offensive and defensive ends; Mark Turner--defensive end; Steve Davis--offensive guard; Wayne Wineinger--offensive and defensive guard; Gary Dennis--defensive guard; Joe Gosch--offensive center and defensive linebacker; Donnie Gilley--offensive running back and defensive linebacker; Mike Thornbro--offensive running back and defensive halfback; Carl Farrar--offensive quarterback; David Smith--offensive quarterback and defensive halfback; Carl Durr and John Bogle--offensive and defensive backs.

Against Sharon the Eagles held a lead or tolerated a tie until the final minute of play when the Sharon Cardinals threw the long pass, completed it and went ahead by six points. Even though the Eagles were defeated by the score they knew they had played their best game. The Sharon-Norwich game was one of the hardest hitting, roughest games played in this part of the state. Even during track season people from other towns were commenting on "that hard hitting game." After suffering this defeat the Eagles regrouped their forces and won the rest of their games.

Homecoming found the Eagles pitted against the Alden Tigers. At the conclusion of the first half the Eagles found themselves down by three touchdowns. True to the Eagle, Norwich came back in the second half and ended up beating Alden by several touchdowns.

Coach Bob Skillen and assistant coach Jim Gosch encouraged the team by being examples of team pride and spirit. The '68' squad leaves the hopes of an undefeated season to the '69' football team.

Eagle Basketball

Ten plus members of the varsity basketball squad had only one thing in mind this year. That was to again bring Norwich High School a winning basketball season. They fell just short of this goal ending the season with a 10-11 record. All but three of the losses were handed to the Eagles during the first half of the season.

Even though the scores weren't impressive the Eagles always showed the opposing team a tough game. One of the high points came when they pulled the unexpected, and in front of a home crowd defeated Sharon by one point. This was the first time in four years that Norwich had been able to down the fighting Cardinals.

Another game to be noticed was the tangle with Harper. Few felt that Norwich could defeat Harper. As it turned out, the mighty Eagles gathered together all of their strength and cut the surprised Bearcats down to size.

The final display of power from the mighty Eagles came during the District Tournament which happened to be held in the Norwich gymnasium. The first night Norwich met Hutchinson Central Christian High School and defeated them quite easily.

The second night wasn't quite so successful but created quite a lot of excitement. The Eagles met Argonia and after an outstanding first half had the Raiders down by sixteen points. The second half found Norwich failing so badly that they lost the game by a sizeable amount.

On the third and final night the Eagles faced the Attica Bulldogs, with whom they had fought losing battles twice before. Norwich fans went into hysteria as they realized that the Eagles were victorious once again and had won third in their District.

New visitor-game uniforms were purchases this year to complete the outfits which were started during the '67-68' season. The '69-70' basketball team will surely enjoy the new uniforms.

We had two players receive league recognition for their abilities. Donnie Gilley was voted onto the All-League team while Harold Fieser received honorable mention. Each member of the team served at least once as the team captain or co-captain.

Junior Varsity

Junior varsity games are played in order to let the freshmen and sophomores gain some experience at playing high school basketball before they start playing varsity ball. This year's team may not have received the will to win but they surely gained the power to stick to the game and keep on fighting. This is at times more difficult to teach than the will to win.

This year's junior varsity team was coached by Mr. Gosch who was also the varsity assistant coach. The boys were mostly freshmen but there were also a few upperclassmen. Seven freshmen, five sophomores, and four juniors made up the sixteen man squad.

The junior varsity games were played against the other teams in the league and some teams from the immediate area. Games were played previous to the varsity games on the same nights.

One of the highlights in the junior varsity season was the game with Cunningham. Norwich kept it tight and the game ended up being so wild that the varsity boys (who were in the shower room) had to come out and see what was going on.

The Hardtner game was a tough one to lose as the junior varsity boys played one of their best games, yet found themselves on the short end of the score. This was the first of two disheartening games played that night as the varsity also lost a close game.

The scores show how the junior varsity season went. Points were all that were lacking from this team effort to make it a winning season.

Track

The first night of track practice nineteen boys pulled on their sweat suits to discover they weren't in shape. Coach Bob Skillen made it clear to all the boys that track was more or less an individual sport. The boys would have to work on their own to get in shape. Coach Skillen was always glad to give advice to the boys concerning the techniques involved in their individual events.

Harold Fieser and Joe Gosch were the backbone around which the track team was built. These two boys placed in all the regularly scheduled meets. Donnie Gilley was expected to pull many points for the team this year but was unable to after he pulled a muscle during practice. Because of this, Donnie ran in only three meets.

There were three new school records placed on the books this year. Harold Fieser stretched the shotput distance to a new record when he put it 49' 1 3/8" at the Clearwater meet, taking first place there. Joe Gosch spun his discus to a new record at the league meet. His record distance of 150' 5" won the gold medal. The third record to be broken this year came in pole vault. Here Maynard Robertson pushed the height to 11' 5" while taking first at the league meet. Other point makers in individual events were David Smith, Mark Turner, Kevin Coykendall, Donnie Gilley, Kent Zogleman, and Carl Farrar. The 880 yd. relay team placed twice and the medley relay once.

The league meet was the most exciting meet. Norwich led all the way from the beginning to the last event. However the final event, the mile relay, left the Eagles one-half point out of first place. It was pointed out that there were several times in the meet where, had there been a little more effort put forward, the meet would have been won. A sad batch of boys rode home that night.

School trophies were won at two meets: the State Indoor at Manhattan and the league meet at Kiowa, sponsored by Hardtner. Donnie Gilley took third for Norwich at the Indoor while the team placed second at the league meet.

Girls Basketball

Taking the whole state of Kansas into consideration it could be stated that girls basketball teams are beginning to become extinct. However Norwich doesn't contribute to this picture. Under the guidance of a knowledgeable coach like Miss Eggert, flourishing and winning teams of girls basketball have come from Norwich High for several years. This year ended up being no exception as coach Eggert and her varsity team brought home a 4 win, 2 loss record. The B-team broke even at a one and one record. Coach Eggert had decided to retire from coaching while she has the four winning seasons on her record.

For the opening game of the season the girls, in front of a home crowd, faced Skyline. This was the first of two encounters between the two teams. It must have been the home crowd that gave the spark to victory for the Eagles cut Skyline down by eighteen points with a score of 52 to 34.

The second and third games of the season were played at Fairfield where Norwich wone one and lost one. It was the B-team that suffered the defeat as they lost 15 to 18. Squeezing by in the last five seconds the A-team won be a score of 42 to 41.

Due to a rule that girls can play only a certain number of quarters a week, coach Eggert decided to play Nashville-Zenda for what it was worth and save her better team for the Sharon game. This strategy worked as far as the Sharon game was concerned as we won it 38 to 19. However the handicap of not being able to play the first string cost the Eagles the Nashville-Zenda game. Norwich was handed its first defeat by a 18 to 37 margin.

The season meeting with Skyline found the B-team taking a win by a score of 20 to 11. On the other hand the A-team again found itself on the lower end of the score, being defeated by only two points 34 to 36.

For the final game of the season the A-team was very glad to win the rematch with Nashville-Zenda. Winning for a home crowd, by a score of 40 to 36.

The girls are very pleased with the outcome of the basketball season and hope next years team is just as good if not better.

Girls Track

The Norwich girl's track team made up of seven high school girls, started the track season off with practice several weeks before their first track meet. The meet was held at Medicine Lodge on Saturday, May 3, 1969.

The seven girls participating in this meet were Connie Holder, Ardis Garver, Jill Vornauf, Kim Vornauf, Barbara Elliott, Roseanne Dick and Kay Davis.

The meet was a very hard one becuase twenty three schools participated and gave tough enough competition to those seven girls. They still came up with the following places:

Connie Holder	1st	shotput
Ardis Garver	4th	broadjump
	5th	440 yd. dash
	5th	100 yd. dash
Roseanne Dick	4th	75 yd. dash
Kim & Jill Vornauf Roseanne Dick Barbara Elliott	4th	440 yd. relay

This was only the first meet and the girls looked forward to their next one at McPherson.

The girls of "Trotter's Trouper's" Track Team" marched right into second place at the McPherson meet. This, an invitational meet, was held on Friday, May 17, 1969 in the afternoon.

The Troupers were coached by Mr. Trotter and had much success this day. The places were as follows:

Ardis Garver	1st	broad jump
	1st	440 yd. dash
	3rd	100 yd. dash
Connie Holder	2nd	javelin
	2nd	shotput
Kim Vornauf	5th	standing longjump
	5th	50 yd. dash
Barbara Elliott	5th	220 yd. dash
Roseanne Dick	2nd	100 yd. dash
	4th	75 yd. dash
Jill & Kim Vornauf Roseanne Dick Barbara Elliott	2nd	440 yd. relay

The results totaled out to be Campus High, from Wichita taking first place with sixty nine points. Norwich second with sixty five points. Wichita South, third with fifty five points and fourth place, Skyline with fifty three points.

As you can tell the girls were up against many big schools and they are very proud of the results.

Girls Tennis

This year's tennis team consisted of twelve girls: three seniors, three juniors, one sophomore, and five freshmen. Of these twelve only six played enough against competition to letter. They were Connie Holder, Ardis Garver, Jill Vornauf, Debbie Fieser, Debbie Klaver, and Sondra Durr. Mr. Harris' superb coaching led the girls to their victories, but the most enjoyable times for him, were the trips to and from the meets.

The girls tennis team traveled to two meets this year, both of which were held in Hutchinson. The first meet was a triangular meet with Hutchinson and Wichita Collegiate. Second place was won at this meet as Connie Holder won all three of her sets and Patty Allender and Jill Vornauf (playing doubles) won one of their three sets. At the second meet the Eagles placed fourth out of seventeen teams. Here again it was Connie winning six of seven sets and Jill and Patty taking one set.

Practices were held three times a week but due to excessive rain and a court that needed repair, most of the practices were held in the gymnasium. The girls were happy to report that they only lost two tennis balls, broke one racket, had three ingrown toenails, six holes in the bottoms of their shoes, and only forty three calluses.

Each year there are several events which take place that should be put in the annual but no space is provided. One of these occasions was the time Mr.

Harris and Mr. Johnson dressed up like girls (cheerleaders) and led the pep club in a pep rally. The two guest cheerleaders were supposedly representatives from the Nashville-Zenda Pep Club, coming on a good will mission. There were very few in the school who knew about the guests so when they appeared no one could keep from laughing. Their cheers were original pieces of work by the two and ended up being used later on in the season by our own pep club.

On March 18 several construction company representatives assembled in the school lunchroom to give their bids on the job of building the new four room school building. This meeting started a new chapter in the history book of our school at Norwich.

The 8th hour welding class did its share to deface the school grounds. At any time during the year, if a person would have looked on the north side of the high school building he would have found a real mess. A large enough mess, in fact, to convince the viewer. the school had started a junk yard. The truth is that the metal was there for constructive purposes. Everything from a five inch cannon to a pair of loading shoots was produced. This included gates, a two wheeled cart, a pony cart, a cattle guard, and stock racks for a pickup.

May 15, at the final PTA meeting the projects built throughout the year were put on display. These included the woodworking, welding, American government, American history, and citizenship classes. These projects filled the back of the gym and were looked over by all.

Student Council

This years' Student Council has been a little more active than in the past years. It took on several projects in order to liven up the school year and to improve our school. The first of these projects was to paint some barrels and place them outside to be used as trash cans. The next project, which took all year was the reworking and rewriting of the school's constitution. Thirdly, the Student Council introduced three pleasure days in the last three months to break the boredom that usually occurs in the spring. These days were hat day--March 20, bum day--April 17, and shorts day--May 15. For the benefit of the other schools in the league, the Norwich Student Council sponsored a dance the afternoon of the band festival which was held at Norwich this year. This created something for everyone to do during the period of time between rehearsal and performance.

One major piece of legislation which the Student Council put through was to help next years' council. This piece of work will set aside one hour, during school, from every month for the council to meet. This year all meetings had to be cleared through the office as to place and time.

Annual Staff

This year the annual staff consisted of Carl Farrar, editor; Kevan Gable, asst. editor; Sondra Durr, advertising manager; Linda Ely, photographer; Connie Holder, sales manager; Jill Vornauf, Junior editor; and Janet Peyton, asst. Junior editor. The elected Juniors editors at the first of the year were Valory Eshnaur and Mike Eshnaur, but for various reasons the others were elected to replace them.

In September, the staff attended a meeting at Wichita South High sponsored by the American Yearbook Company. Here we learned techniques in yearbook planning and were shown the various covers and cover designs available.

The Senior class became members of the staff for one day when they took out of school to go to various towns selling advertisements. Seniors converged on Wellington, Argonia, Conway Springs, Harper, Anness, Murdock, Belmont, Cheney, Kingman, Anthony, Wichita, Shulte, Viola, and Suppesville. They also were recruited to sell annuals and booster ads in and around Norwich.

The annual work lasted from September well into the summer because of the August delivery. There were three set deadlines to meet and the staff worked very diligently and sometimes late into the night to meet them.

All told, the staff worked 562 hours and turned out a $1400.00, 120 page annual and we hope you like it.

Everybody made it for once!

(Janet said we couldn't put it in.)

The "Eagle"

The Eagle is published once a month during the school year. This takes a combined effort from the senior English class and the typing II class. Without one of these and the pushing from the sponsors the "Eagle" would never be published.

At the beginning of the year the senior English class held an election to get the newspaper under way. An editor, assistant editor, art editor, advertising manager, and circulation manager were elected to keep the paper on the press. As the year rolled on it was found to be necessary to make some changes in the officers. Not once did this mix-up delay the publication of the "Eagle".

When the Student completes an article he presents it to a fellow student who proof-reads the piece. After both students agree that the article is worthy of the press it is handed to the teacher. She grades it and passes it on to the typing class. Here it spends anywhere from one day to two weeks getting printed. Then presto----we have a paper. It is sometimes surprising what comes out in that paper.

Would you believe it? They are working on the paper.

It's posed but they really do work-------sometimes.

Shirley F. and Kay R. are surprised while working at the files.

Judy M. works busily checking out books during 6th hour study hall.

Student Librarians

At the beginning of the school year the student body was asked for volunteers to act as student librarians. Some volunteered but there were not enough, so students in the study halls were asked if they wanted to be student librarians. Finally enough girls volunteered to have two librarians in each study hall. Too many other duties and the realization that some study halls were small enough that librarians were not required eliminated a few volunteers. The ones remaining on duty were: Judy Mahaffey, Gloryanne Risley, Brenda Martin, Shirley Fieser, Kay Riley, Kay Davis, Jill Skillen, Sandra Ely, Linda Reed, and Brenda Ely.

The main duty of the librarians is to check books in and out for their fellow students. They also put the books back on the shelves and keep the shelves looking neat by straightening the books and dusting. It is also up to the librarians to keep the latest issues of the magazines in the racks and the current newspapers on the news hangers.

The reward these girls receive for their donation of time is the betterment of their school.

The Y-TEENS participate in several activities during the year. These include the welcoming for the incoming freshmen, Thanksgiving Chapel, Valentine Party, World Day of Prayer, and the World Fellowship Offering. In October, representatives from the club attended the ICC election for the district in Anthony. The past year, Rosemary Hibbs had been the ICC representative. Sue Kraus was the Norwich nomination this year and she was elected. Mrs. Doan was honored by a baby shower sponsored by joint Y-TEEN--YWCA clubs. The Y-TEENS also did the cerebral palsey drive for Norwich.

PTA

The PTA met eight times during the '68-69 school year, introducing a variety of programs. September 19 the teachers were introduced and duets were sung by Mrs. Holmes and duaghter, Dixie. October 17, a panel discussion covered subjects ranging from student health to child behavior problems. On November 21 a one act play, "The Little Red Schoolhouse" was given by actors volunteering from the community. The December 19 program was in fact the music Christmas program, directed by Mr. Heffner. The February 20 program consisted of the presentation of the litterbug poster awards and a music program by a quartet from the Kingman area. March 20 found Pete Gable showing his slides of Viet Nam and Thailand. Again on April 20 the music department took over and presented their spring concert. The May 15 program exhibited all the projects built during school.

Music Librarian

Horsefeathers! I can't find it anywhere.

Ardis Garver was music librarian this year. Ardis worked during study halls and when needed, stayed after school. She had the job of organizing the music room. She sorted music and returned it to the files after classes. At the beginning of the year she sorted the music into different folders and labeled them for the files. Ardis was also in charge of the band uniform check out and filing report cards and filling them out. When needed she filled in for a few minutes for Mr. Heffner as a teacher for grade school classes. Her work was valuable and appreciated very much.

Music

Mixed Chorus had 49 members this year. There were 15 boys in Boys Glee Club and 36 girls in Girls Glee Club. Performances included the Christmas Program; Vocal Festival at Alden, March 28; State Contest at Stafford, April 11 and 12; and Spring Concert, April 17.

The Christmas Program was given at a PTA meeting, with both the grade school music classes and the band performing.

Professor Hardy of Wichita State University was the clinition for Vocal Festival. All of the schools in the league participated in the festival. The choruses of each school were all grouped together to form one large mixed chorus. The afternoon was used for practice, with supper and a dance provided for the students before the evening performance. The day was enjoyed by all, students and faculty alike.

At State Contest, Mixed Chorus received a III rating on their performance and a III for sight reading. Boys Glee's performance got them a III and their sight reading a I. The performance of the Girls Glee was rated III and sight reading V. Those who took solos to contest were Valory Eshnaur, who received a I for her piano solo; Spencer Harding, a II rating for his tenor solo; and Edith Farrar, also playing the piano, a III.

Spring Concert was also given at a PTA meeting. This concert initiated the kindergarten rhythm band, grade rhythm band, elementary band, and stage band. The band, glee clubs, and Mixed Chorus presented the numbers which they had performed at State Contest.

Band

33 students managed to form a Norwich High School Band. 11 were actually from high school. The other 22 were 7th and 8th graders.

The first of the band's 2 seasons is for marching band. Because of their late start, they had very little time to prepare for the show to be given at half-time of the first home football game. From there they went ahead to prepare two more shows for home games, one of which worked into the homecoming ceremony.

During basketball season the "pep band" played between A and B-team games and at the half of the A-games for 9 games.

The 2 seasons, marching and concert, overlap in the middle of the year to place a real strain on the band. It not only has to keep the marches sounding sharp but it is necessary to work up music for its concerts.

The first concert the band played for was the Christmas program on December 16, 1968, combined with the choral groups of the entire school.

The next concert event for the concert band was the Golden Plains League Band Festival on March 21, 1969. All of the bands of the league joined together for a day of work. A performance was given in the evening for the public.

Of the greatest importance to the concert band is their performance before judges to receive a rating as to their worth. This year the State Music Contest was held in Stafford on March 11, 1969. For their efforts there they received a III on their 2 prepared numbers and a III on the sight reading.

The final event of the concert band was spring concert held on March 17, 1969. This spring concert also combined the band with the choral groups. The band displayed the numbers which were taken to contest.

Behind the encouragement of Mr. Heffner, the Conductor, the band received 3 new instruments. They have been used in the creation of a stage band. The new instruments are a tenor saxophone, trap drum set, and a bass fiddle. These instruments have created a new excitement at Norwich which should stir interests in the band for years to come.

SCHOOL LIFE

Freshman Initiation

On September 19, 1968, the Student Council and the Senior Class officially welcomed the Freshman Class. For their initiation the Freshmen were dressed in various outfits ranging from swim suits and shoulder pads to cardboard boxes and hip boots. This included diapers and galoshes, nighties with wigs and heels, and backwards overalls with football helmets.

High School was let out early in the afternoon so that the Freshmen could be marched down main street singing their song: "I are stupid. I are stupid. I are nuts. I are nuts. Ignorant little Freshmen. Ignorant little Freshmen. Dumb, dumb, dumb! Dumb, dumb, dumb!" The senior boys attempted to convince a few of the Freshmen that upperclassmen were boss, with buckets of water. Pictures were taken and the soaked Freshmen were herded back to the school.

Harold Fieser and Connie Holder were in charge of the makeup and the outfits for each of the new high school students.

Homecoming

The 1968 homecoming festivities began Friday, October 18, with a pep rally in the gym, followed by a pep talk from Coach Skillen. The enthusiastic group Friday afternoon proceeded to the football game between the Norwich Eagles and the Alden Alden Tigers that night. Homecoming activities came to a climax during the half-time ceremonies with the crowning of Sondra Durr as Homecoming Queen. Leading in the royal family were pages Mary Thornbro and Beau Johnson. The crowning honor was given to Donnie Gilley, the Homecoming King. Attendants of the royalty were Kevan Gable and Rosemary Hibbs. Their escorts were Harold Fieser and Carl Farrar.

The patriotic float from which the queen reigned the remainder of the game was well suited to the theme, "Spirit of '68." Also the gymnasium where Norwich alumni attended the Homecoming dance was gayly decorated.

To top off all the many events of this night, the Eagles were victorious over Alden 51 to 32.

Powder Puff

In the fall of 1967 a new event was added to the calender at Norwich High School. It seemed that a few of the girls wanted to prove to the boys that boys aren't so tough. Also the subject of a new football scoreboard had been brought up and the girls wanted to contribute their share toward the new scoreboard. All procedes from the admissions at these two powder puff games have gone toward the purchase of the new scoreboard. Becuase we already have the finest turf, a good scoreboard would give us the best football field in the league.

On October the 24th at 7:30 PM the second annual powder puff game got under way. Except for the air being a little chilly, it was a beautiful night for football.

The nineteen girls participating were randomly divided hoping that the teams would end up balanced. All four classes in high school were represented as five seniors, four juniors, four sophomores, and six freshmen suited up for the game of "grab the flag." This game followed the regular rules except that there was to be no tackling of the ball carrier. A flag was tucked into the pants of each player and when the flag of the ball carrier had been removed the ball was blown dead.

The two teams named themselves. The Untouchables were coached by Mr. Trotter and captained by Ardis Garver. They, by the way, are in the white suits and came out on top. The Grabbits, in the red suits, were coached by Mr. Harris and the captain was chosen to be Barbara Elliott.

It was a fast game with few time outs. Substitutions were frequent and welcomed by the players. Most of the touchdowns were made on long runs after a speedster would find herself through a hole. The final score gave the Untouchables a reason for their smiles as they downed the Grabbits 28-7. This set a new record for Mr. Trotter's coaching career because in two successive seasons of football his teams have gone undefeated.

The officials were Bob Skillen, Jim Gosch, and George Holmes. It added to the game to have Bob and Jim running all over the field displaying their "speed and agility!!?"

The cheering sections were evenly divided as the A team cheerleaders, leading the freshman and senior classes, rooted for the Grabbits while the sophomores and juniors, directed by the B team cheerleaders, supported the Untouchables. The concession stand was operated by the pep club to add to the score board fund.

They are distinguished but---they don't know it.

Alumni Association

The Norwich Alumni Association meets every two years to celebrate those classes which graduated twenty five and fifty years ago. Tradition has it that all who can make it, should get together and discuss and relive all those good times "back then." It is an evening for meeting again those old buddies that you used to have so much fun with.

This year's alumni banquet received the usual good turn-out. There were a total of one hundred fifty nine paid reservations. In past years, when there weren't so many attending, the local churches would take turns serving the banquet. Now, to ease the burden and give everyone a chance to visit, the services of a catering service has been employed.

Several years ago the alumni association took on the project of placing all the class pictures in a wall hanger. This year that project came to be completed after much hard work and many long hours. As it stands now, in the gymnasium lobby, the picture of every graduate of Norwich High except one, since the year 1910 is on display.

For the next two years the alumni officers will be Jim Poe, Jim Gosch, and Mary Oyler acting as president, vice-president, and secretary-treasurer respectively.

Some pictures hadn't made it to the frames yet, but they were looked at.

The finished ones are on the wall.

Headin' Fer A Weddin'

On November 15, 1968 the people of Norwich gathered at the gymnasium prepared for an evening of laughter. They got exactly that as the Junior Class presented their class play, HEADIN' FER A WEDDIN', on the stage. The Juniors chose this play because it would not be too difficult to perform and it was sure to provide the audience with numerous laughs. Being a comedy made it enjoyable to work on and a pleasure to give.

HEADIN' FER A WEDDIN' was directed by Mr. Carrol Johnson. The stage crew duties were handled by Chris Kind. The stage setting was easy enough to obtain because it consisted of antique furniture gathered from the homes of the actors. The costumes were any old clothes which were patched enough to be suited for hillbilly apparel.

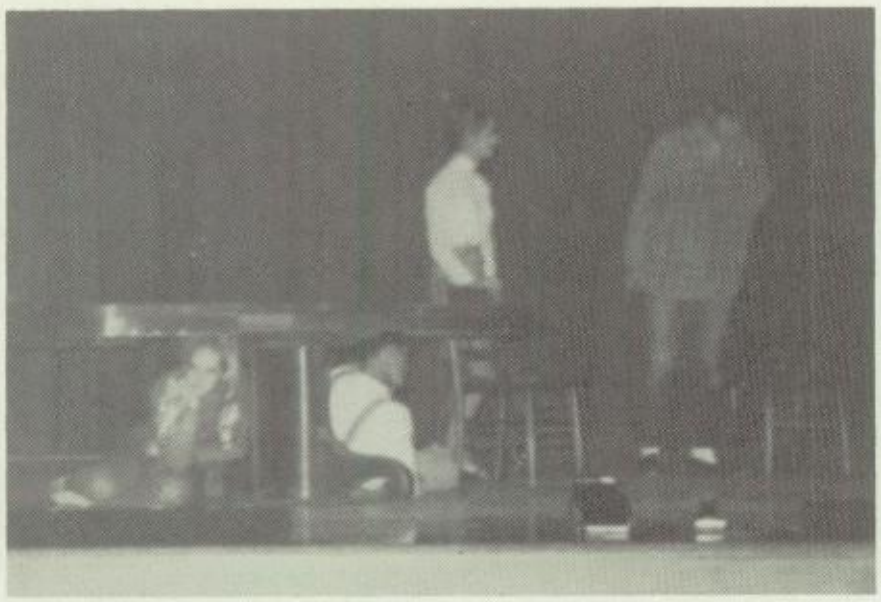
HEADIN' FER A WEDDIN' is about Homer Hallowbone who has fallen in love with a debutant whose picture he found in a newspaper. He begins a correspondence with the girl, telling her that he lives in a mansion, will be vacationing in Europe over the summer, and is a very refined, educated person. To put it mildly, he has exaggerated. He lives in a shack in the mountains with his dirty, shiftless family. Maw and Fanny Jane work hard. Paw only eats, sleeps, and teaches Gloris, his pet skunk to do tricks. Sarah Jo and Gracie May spend their time teasing Homer and chasing boys. It's been a hard winter and they are in the midst of a snow storm.

As the curtain parts Homer is writing a letter to his debutante, Melissa Dugan, when Gracie May grabs it and reads it aloud. Paw insists it is a "courtin" letter and demands to know the girl's name. They jumps to the conclusion that it was written to Bertha Blairhouse just as she, her widowed "Maw" and her brother arrive to take refuge from the storm. Homer is busily ducking Bertha when another unexpected guest arrives. No less than Melissa Dugan herself! She tells she became lost in the snow storm while on her way to marry a handsome, well-educated young gentleman with whom she has been corresponding. Homer almost chokes. He hadn't intended his letters to sound that serious. Desperately he tries to keep her from discovering his identity. His efforts misfire, however, and Melissa Dugan learns the truth. Homer finds himself engaged to the boisterous Bertha. . . until Gracie May tells Bertha that Homer suffers periods of unconsciousness during which he thinks he is a dog. Homer is unaware of his sister's efforts in his behalf until Bertha gives him a bone to chew.

Feuds, misunderstandings, and accidents keep the Hallowbone household jumping. In the end Melissa Dugan and Homer Hollowbone are to be married and the whole Hollowbone family moves into luxury when a TV producer discovers Gloria, the trained skunk.

Carl is receiving his make-up.

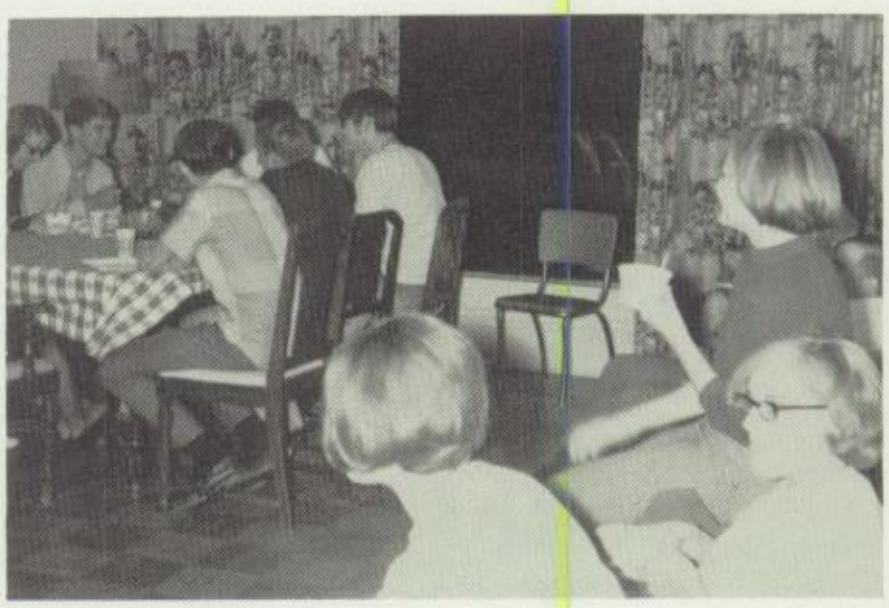
Jill attempts to break Debbie's hold on Mike.



Debbie finds fiancee while kids hide under the table.

Wayne proposes to Valory while the others listen.

Valory and Gloryanne warm their feet after they come in from the storm.



The stars await Warner Bros. scouts.

Christmas Program

On December 16, 1968, a musical Christmas program was presented in the Grade School Auditorium by the band and music classes.

Mrs. Bernice Friend started the program by leading her kindergarteners through "O Come Little Children", "The First Christmas Night", and "The Simple Birth."

Mr. Heffner then accompanied the first six grades at the piano. The first and second grades filed onto the risers for enthusiastic renditions of "We Wish You a Merry Christmas". "Away In The Manger", and "Up On The Housetop", complete with motions. The third and fourth grades presented "O Little Town Of Bethlehem", "Deck The Halls", "Pinata", "It Came Upon A Midnight Clear", "The First Noel", and "Jingle Bells", followed by the fifth and sixth grades' "We Three Kings", "Silent Night", "Hark The Herald Angels Sing", and "Joy To The World."

"It's Beginning To Look A Lot Like Christmas", "I Want To Climb Jacobs Ladder", and "Jingle Bells" were sung by the seventh grade, accompanied on the piano by Linn Simpson.

The band played six numbers, all of which were rousing marches. They were "Commander March" by Davis, "Blue Eagle" by Johnson, "Transcontinental" by Weber, "Larghetto" by Beethoven, "His Honor" by Fillmore, and "Our Director" by Bigelow.

The High School Mixed Chorus was accompanied by Edith Farrar in singing "Finlandia" by Sibelius, "Jesu, Joy Of Man's Desiring" by J. S. Bach, "Look Down That Lonesome Road", arranged by House, "Blue Velvet", arranged by Haywood, and "Christmas Song", arranged by Ehret.

The band joined the Mixed Chorus in "Come All Ye Faithful" and all of the grades joined in to sing "Winter Wonderland" with the audience.

Many parents expressed their praises of the performance and proud performers congratulated each other. Everyone left with a strong feeling of Christmas Spirit which they had not had when they arrived.

Mr. Heffner, shown practicing his piano, was conductor and accompanist.

Swing it Mr. Harris!

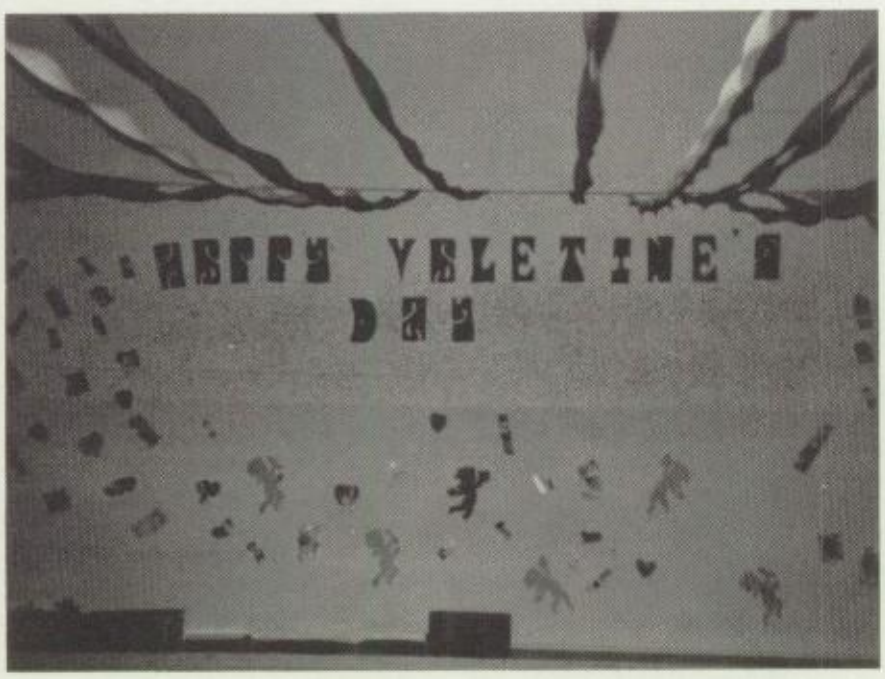
Will Cupid please step forward?

Valentines Party

On February 14, 1969, the Y-Teens sponsored a Valentine's party in the High School gym. All of the high school boys were invited as the Y-Teens' guests. Connie Holder and Sue Kraus led the students in two mixer games to begin the evening. Everyone was divided into two teams which competed by finding objects such as hairpins and shoelaces, which were called out by Connie. Also they competed by having one team laugh at the other and those who could not remain sober on the second team had to go to the first. For partners for the first dance the boys matched half of a valentine which they drew, to those which the girls had drawn. Refreshments of doughnuts, valentine candy and punch were served throughout the dance by the refreshment committee, headed by Valory Eshnaur. Chaperones for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Norval Harris and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Garver.

The gym was decorated with red and white crepe paper streamers with "Happy Valentine's Day" printed on the wall in red construction paper surrounded by valentines and cupids.

Two backwards A's and no N in Valentine's? Oh well, it's the thought that counts.



Isn't love wonderful?

No Boys Allowed

The Senior Class presented as their senior play on March 27, "NO BOYS ALLOWED" by Jean Provence. It is a three act farce containing six men and eight women. Direction was done by Mr. Carrol Johnson.

The main plot of the play went like this. Rita was through with Fred absolutely-especially when she saw him kiss that blonde good-bye at the airport. Of course, Fred claimed it was only his cousin, but blondes like that are nobody's cousin! Then Fred breaks in on Rita's slumber party and pleads with her to take him back. When Rita asks Keith and Harvey to guard the girls against any further intrusion, bedlam takes over. Then the boys decide to steal the eats and place the blame on Fred and Leroy. From there on it was one mad happening after another, from the Midnight Prowler to Victrola the cook, who quits every five minutes.

The seniors enjoyed doing the play very much with its many surprises such as an extra hot sandwich, a freshly waxed floor (slippery) and many graceful falls.

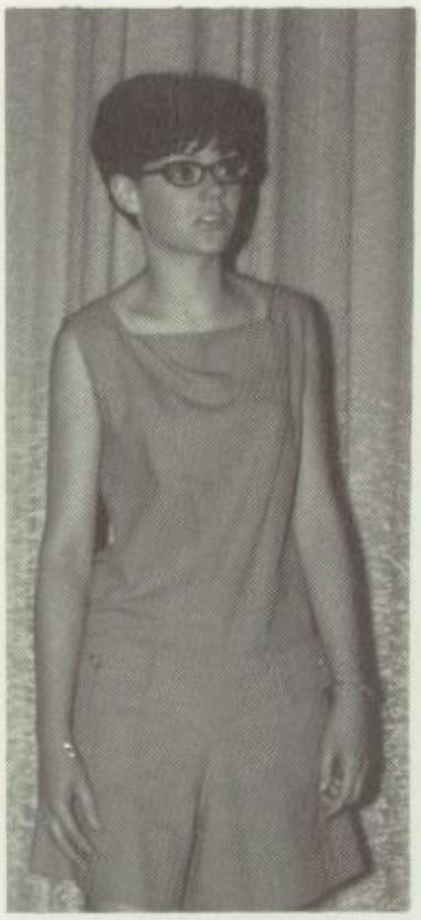
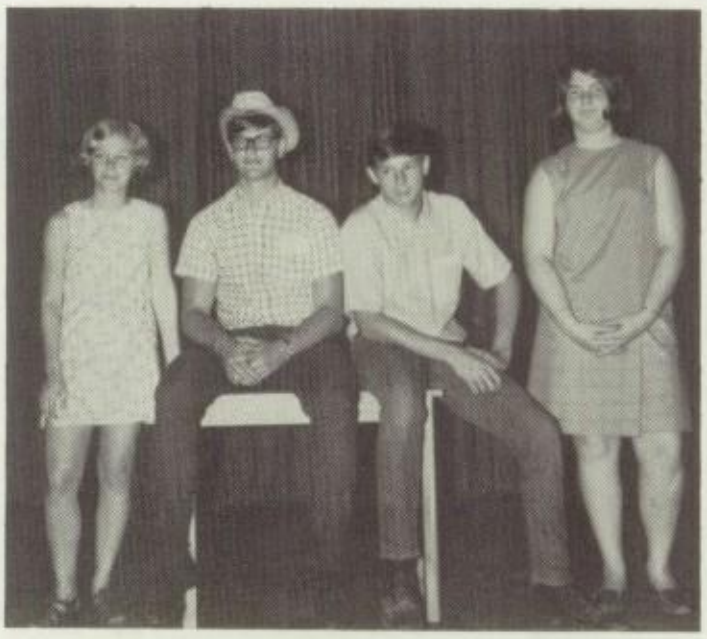
Forensics

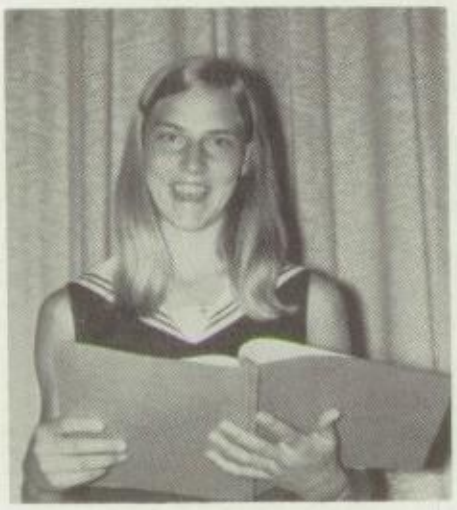


Sondra Kyle (left) took a memorized reading entitled "Home" by Rosalie Utech.

A one act play, "Still Stands the House" by Gwen Tharis Ringwood, was also given. The play cast (right) are (L to R) Sue Kraus, Harold Fieser, Joe Gosch, and Connie Holder.



A prose interpretation taken from CHRISTY by Cathrine Marshall was done by Edith Farrar. (right)



Rosanne Dick (left) took poetry interpretations of selections by Robert Frost.

"The White Cliffs" by Alice Duer Miller was a poetry interpretation done by Ardis Garver (right).

Jeannie Pieplow (not pictured) did a prose interpretation from GONE WITH THE WIND by Margaret Mitchell.

Mrs. Prebble did a very fine job of coaching this group and their ratings from contest were:

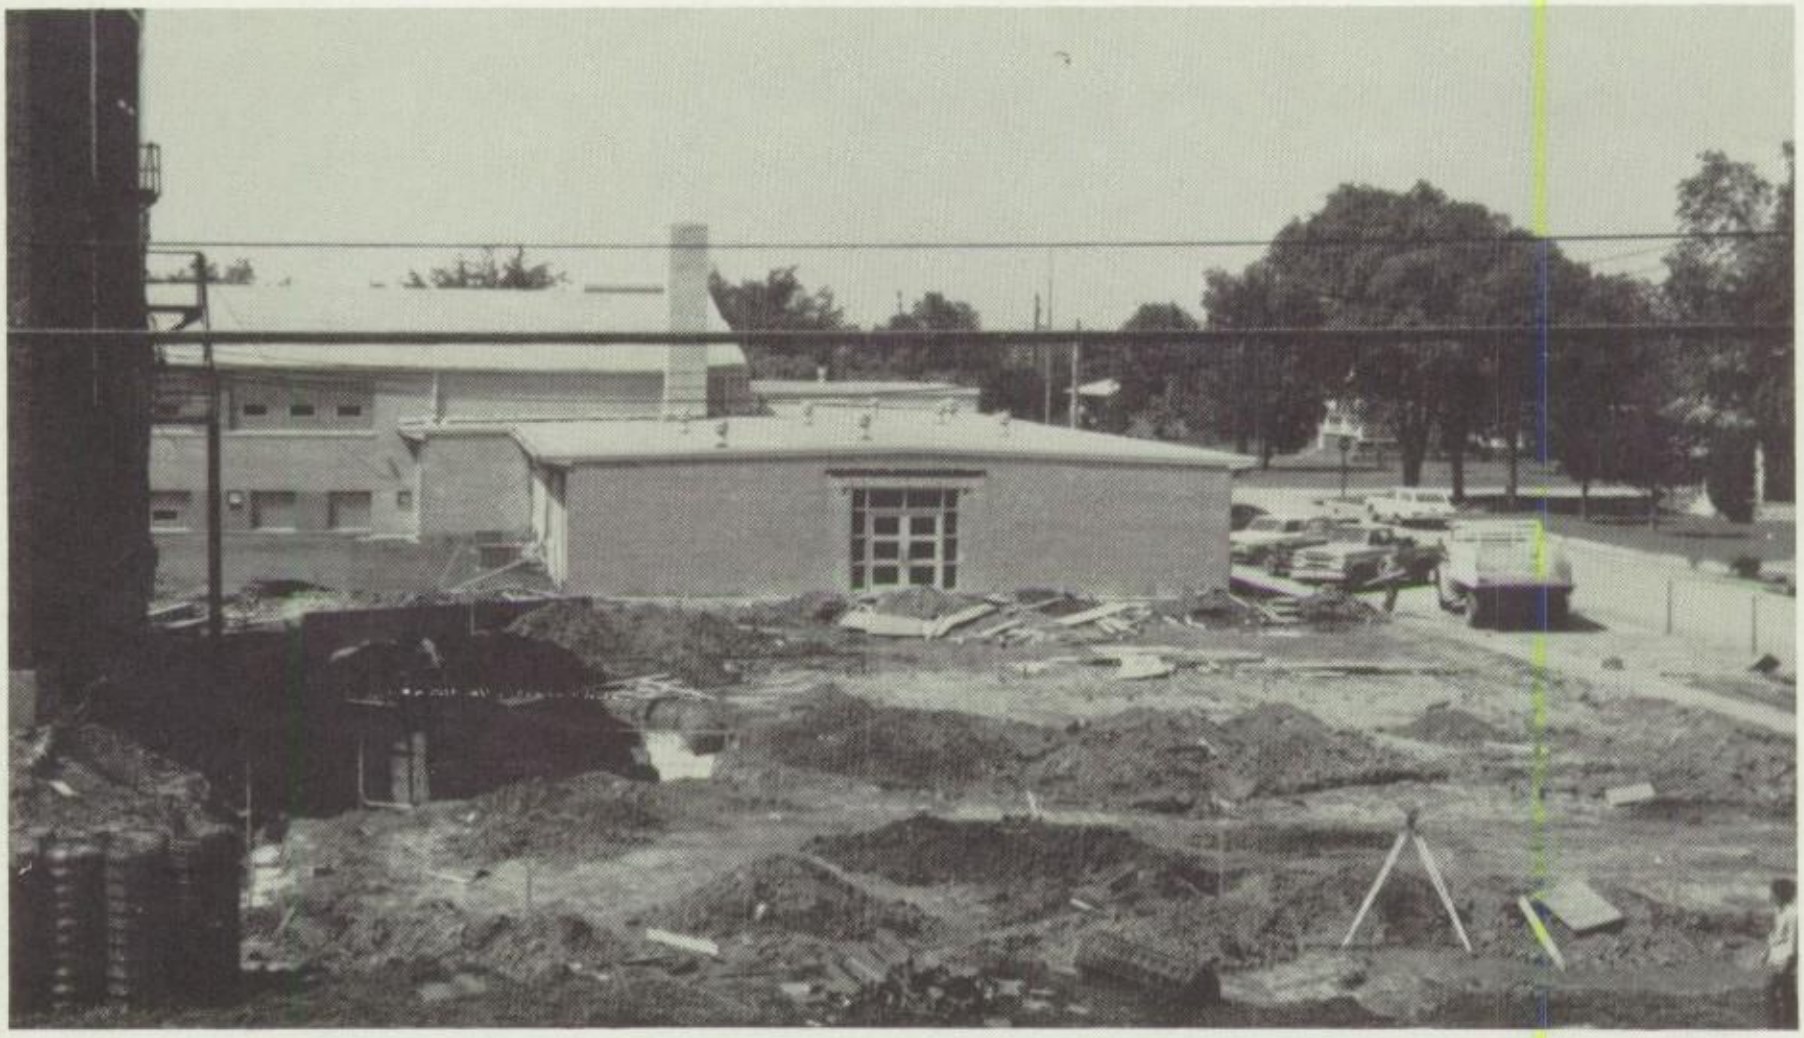
School Construction



The new building site on the south east corner of the block.

NEW BUILDING

A new addition to the school was begun this year to house the first four grades. When completed the new addition, which will cost approximately $135,000, will be connected with the grade school building. There will be paneling in all the rooms and carpet on the floors. Each room will be air-conditioned and have a water fountain. In the center of the four room complex there will be a central library for the use of the entire school.

PLAYGROUND FACILITIES

This year construction began on two new tennis courts on the northwest corner of the block. They will be built so that everyone will be able to use them. The facilities provided on the courts will also make them a surface playground for the lower grades where they will be able to play both volleyball and basketball.

New cement surface playground facilities were begun this year.

Taperlighters--Carl Farrar, Sondra Durr

Attendants--Ardis Garver, Steve Davis

Royalty--Jeannie Pieplow, Maynard Robertson

Crown bearers--Paul Tedman, Lisa Gibson

King and Queen--Connie Holder, Harold Fieser

Royal Kiss

The crowd was packed in for a rip-snortin' time!

Chow was served at the Bird Cage by eighth grade waiters.

Athletic Banquet Royalty

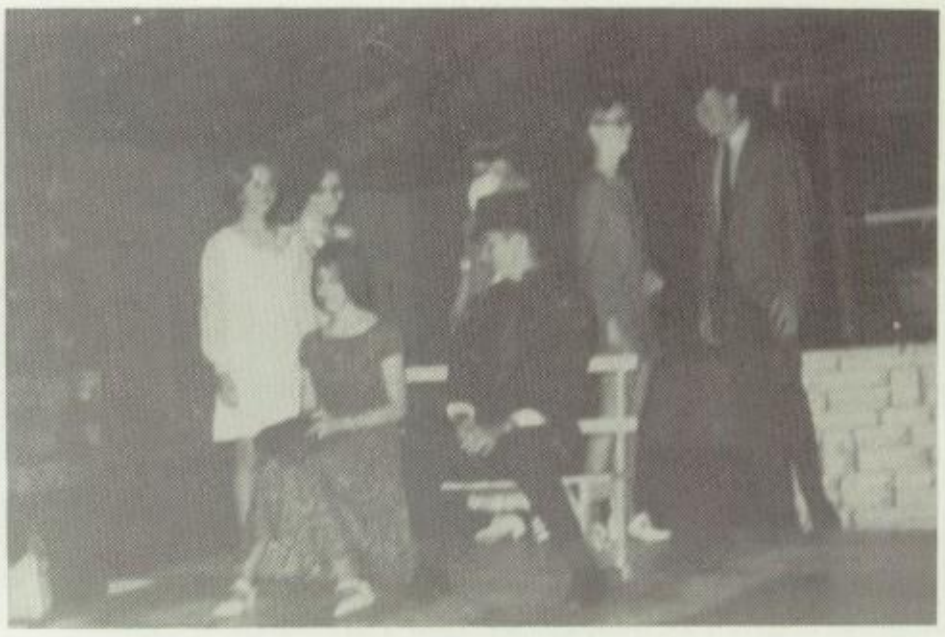
Athletic Banquet

Formal attire was assumed Friday, March 14, for the occasion of the annual Athletic Banquet. This event, sponsored by the Pep Club honoring the athletic boys and girls, was held in the new gym. The faculty, parents, school board members, and officials were also present. Decorations pertaining to the western theme of "The Wild, Wild West" consisted of a wood rail fence, tumble weeds, and a saloon with a bar.

A fine dinner of roast beef, green beans, mashed potatoes and gravy, carrot sticks, Texas Toast, a salad, and cherry dessert which was prepared by the women of the Christian Church started off the evening. The members of the eighth grade class dressed in western fashion served and later attended the dance.

Speeches were given by Connie Holder, Athletic Queen; Harold Fieser, Athletic King; Mr. Skillen, head coach; and Mr. Trotter. Toast Mistress was Ardis Garver. The remainder of the program consisted of a Can-Can dance provided by six high school girls and a medley of songs presented by the Prairie Ramblers, a local quartet.

Hair up, new dresses on, and ready for action.



How about that! Carl is making another pass at Jill.

Junior-Senior Prom

By 6:30 PM of Friday, May the third nearly everyone had made it through the rain to the school gymnasium. Some were a little late, due to the unusual dampness of the spring of 1969, but everyone had taken care to prevent the weather from destroying the new suit, formal, or hairdo which was worn that night.

A person felt like he had stepped into another world, indeed the land of "Moonlight and Roses", when he stepped through the long and narrow archway entrance to the banquet area.

The gym was decorated in red, white, and blue. Silver stars lit up the crepe paper ceiling while two candles on each table gave light to the dining area. A small three layer fountain splashed beauty over the moonlit dining room while a full-scale wishing well dominated the center of the dancing floor.

To start the evening off, Mr. Trotter presented the invocation followed by Sue Kraus with the toast. The waiters then began distributing the evening's meal. The meal was planned and prepared by a committee of junior mothers led by Rogene Wineinger.

Following the dinner, Sue Kraus, the junior president, welcomed the seniors and parents to the Prom. This was met with the response by the senior president, Maynard Robertson Jr. Next, Mr. Trotter and Mr. Johnson each presented a speech and Valory Eshnaur played a piano solo. Finally the junior class presented a skit. The skit was based on the TV program Laugh-In, and included a majority of the junior class.

The program concluded, an hour passed while the musicians set up. Hired from Haysville to play for the dance was the group the "Sound Investment."

Joe Doesn't believe it. Whatever it was that Spencer said.

Laugh-In, that is a good act to base any kind of program on.

Oh! Half the pool in one swallow!

An hour and a half to cook a steak?

This is called concentration.

Fighting over the volleyball?

She missed, but it was close!

Senior Skip Day

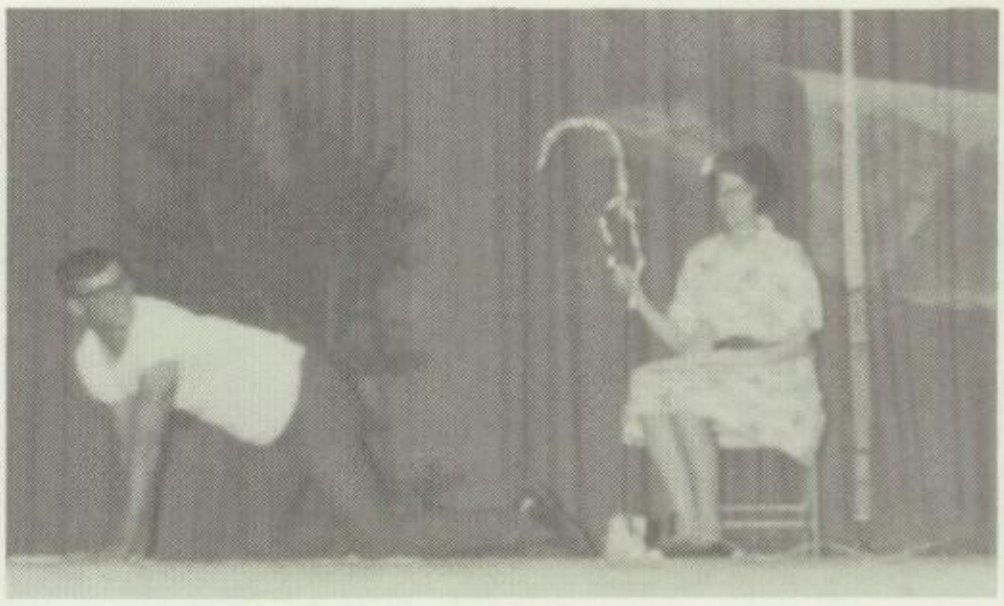
Knowing that they couldn't have a senior trip this year the seniors worked all year on the idea of having a legal skip day. At the end of the year the idea was okayed through all of the high offices and May 20 picked to be the skip date.

As it ended up the seniors loaded a bus and arrived at the Holiday Inn in Wichita about 9:40 AM to take over the four rooms they had rented. The seniors quickly located themselves in their rooms and changed into their swimming suits. After all, the sole reason for renting the rooms was to get the swimming pool. Because of the heavy cloud cover the day was cool enough to cause everyone to stay active in order to keep warm. There were actually three swimming periods. The first two were separated by the noon meal. The second and third sessions were separated by a class meeting. After the meeting it was discovered that the sun had come out, so a few of the more energetic went into the pool for the third time. Throughout the course of the day everyone was dunked or thrown into the pool at least twice. It took a game of keep away to get the sponsors in long enough to get cooled off.

Around five o'clock the bus was loaded again for the trip across town to the Mr. Steak Restaurant. Here everyone including the bus driver, was allowed two and a half dollars on which to eat.

From Mr. Steak the seniors traveled on to the west arriving at the Frontier Fun Center around 7:15 PM prepared for an evening of even more fun. With a special stamp on the hand the seniors were allowed to do anything in the fun center without charge. The bill had been paid when they first arrived. Three hours of activity found the seniors running out of energy and ready for the trip home. They had started the day rich and full of energy but ended it on fifty three cents and weary bodies.

Mother Duck sits with Gertrude.



Donnie Gilley realizes John Wayne may have had it rougher than people think.

Three men in a tub?

Boy Blue forgot his horn!

She wrote it & narrated.

Class Night

The skit for Class Night, May 22, was "Fantasy of Fairyland." This involved all the seniors as they took it upon themselves to interpret a few of the many nursery rhymes. Some of the nursery rhymes included "Little Bo Peep," "Little Boy Blue," "Rub A Dub Dub," and "Firefly, Firefly." The cast received the script two and one half hours before curtain time so they had only gone over it twice. With so little time spent practicing, the seniors were surprised that the skit went over as well as it did. The class will, prophecy, poem, and history were given between nursery rhymes and were presented by the following persons:

Prophecy----------Connie Holder
Will----------Carl Farrar
Poem----------Kevan Gable
History---------- Maynard Robertson

Following the skit, teachers, coaches, and club sponsors presented awards to students and athletes who had earned them. The Lions Club scholarship was awarded to Harold Fieser.

Baccalaureate

Baccalaureate speakers were (L to R) Mr. Trotter, Rev. Marien Holbert, Rev. Blanton, and Mr. Taylor.

18 nervous seniors waited in the hall for the processional.

Baccalaureate is the community church service which is held to honor the senior class. Attendance has become so large that baccalaureate now is held in the school gymnasium. Starting at 8:00 PM this year's baccalaureate, as always is the first opportunity the seniors have to display their caps and gowns. Reverend Marion Holbert delivered the message to the seniors.

May 23, 1969 the seniors gathered together to share one of the biggest days of their lives. As they walked down the isle, feeling of pride, accomplishment and confidence rose to the top of every graduate's throat. The evening went all too fast as the seniors sang "Born Free," received the message delivered by former Kansas State Senator, Don Matlack, and eagerly accepted their diplomas. Nineteen seniors have passed from high school to contribute their worth to the world.

Commencement

Seniors filled the front row and waited anxiously for their diplomas.

Parents and friends offered their congratulations.

Valedictorian Speech

by Harold Fieser

The main purpose of our educational system is to prepare the youth of America for the world they are going to be entering as adults. Our educational system is probably the best in the world, but I would expand on one point of this purpose. Our education not only prepares us for the world, but it also determines what that world will be like. The world of tommorrow will by just what we make it and to develop it to its potential we must be educated to cope with the problems of the world.

We are just now on the verge of entering the world of tomorrow. Now is the time that we must make the most monumental decisions of our lives. Within the next ten years, most of us will decide on a mate, an occupation, and hundreds of other decisions that will affect us for the rest of our lives. Up to this point most of our decisions have been affected by our parents, teachers, and friends. Now is the time we must make our own decisions, for we are the ones who will have to live with them. Our parents and others can still be of immense help to us, but our dependence upon them must be limited for when we leave the nest there will be no one to look out for us except ourselves. We are thankful that we had such good teachers who were always willing to help with a problem and who never ceased to be a constant source of sympathy and support. I must admit, however there were times that I was convinced that their one great joy in life was the complete and total torture of our minds and bodies through that lethal weapon of never ending school work. Now that I am safe from attack with this weapon, I can see that their one goal was to make us better and more responsible persons. I'm sure their efforts have not been entirely in vain.

Our parents have helped and supported us in so many ways I will not even try to mention them all. I can only hope that we will be able to live up to their teachings and expectations and by so doing, show our thanks for all they have done for us and are still doing for us.

As I am about to step into the world of tomorrow I have been asking myself, "What are you going to do?" Of course I plan to go to college, but still my studies must be centered on one occupation. I wonder if I am mature enough to make such a momentous decision. Rudyard Kipling expresses a worthwhile thought in his poem "IF".

"If you can dream and not make dreams your master,
If you can think and not make thoughts your aim,
If you can meet with triumph
and disaster,
And treat these two imposters
just the same;
Yours is the Earth and everything
that's in it,
And--which is more--you'll be a Man, my Son!"

We must be able to dream for dreams are the steps to reality. But still we must not let dreams rule our lives so that we are not happy with what we do have. We must be able to think for ourselves but we must not confine ourselves to thoughts alone, for thoughts without actions are worthless. And we must certainly be able to meet with triumph and disaster for surely there will be both. Both have the ability to ruin you if you cannot take both in stride.

Whatever I do now and the rest of my life will be something I enjoy, regardless of whether it is the highest paying job or not. I believe whatever you do, go to school or go to work, your heart must be in what you do or you will not be doing yourself or anybody else any good. And if you cannot do your best there is no reason to attempt to try. This quotation by an anonymous writer sums up my feelings, "A task without a vision is drudgery; a vision without a task is a dream; a task with a vision is victory!"
